

Casting-day capsule wardrobe checklist

Follow the agency or client's clothing instructions first. Use suitable clothes you own, then pack only the changes and backup items your day needs.

01 Give each item a purpose

ROLE	MY CHOICE FROM THE WARDROBE	READY
Arrival outfit		☐
Requested change		☐
Travel layer		☐
Shoes for the activity		☐
Small backup		☐

02 Try the complete outfit

- ☐ Sit, walk, reach and turn in the clothes and shoes.
- ☐ Check seams, fasteners and anything needing repeated adjustment.
- ☐ Check front, side and back in ordinary light: assess the clothes.

A second shoe or extra look should solve a clear need. Fit is a clothing problem you can address; this is not a body-assessment checklist.

Pack light. Take notes.

Build the bag around the actual journey and likely interruptions. After the appointment, change one weak point before the next booking.

03 Pack a compact backup kit

- ☐ Requested documents and items are present and easy to reach.
- ☐ Spare simple top, if useful for the day's likely problems.
- ☐ Water and a charging option suited to the journey.
- ☐ Weather protection where the route calls for it.
- ☐ Separate wet items, drinks and used shoes from clean clothing.
- ☐ Keep accessories in a pouch; ask before pinning borrowed clothes.

MY ROUTE / WEATHER NEED / LIKELY INTERRUPTION

04 Make the capsule repeatable

WHAT WORKED THIS TIME

ONE CHANGE BEFORE NEXT TIME

CARE OR REPAIR NEEDED / WHEN

ITEMS CARRIED BUT NOT USED

05 Ready for the next appointment

- ☐ Check the next brief instead of assuming the clothing rules are identical.
- ☐ Allow time for washing or maintenance before counting an item as ready.
- ☐ Add a duplicate basic only when repeated appointments justify it.

No universal all-black rule applies. If clothing instructions are unclear, use the booking contact to clarify what the appointment needs.
